

TUNDRA GREY

COLOUR

Grey

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Tundra Grey marble is a particular limestone with a beautiful tobacco color that has, according to the quarry and block of provenience, cloudy veinings in cream and light brown.

Tundra Grey marble expresses modern and contemporary tastes in interior design, a material very much used and preferred for innovative applications as marble modern floorings, claddings and facings, countertops for contemporary kitchen and bathrooms, decorative objects and marble jewelry. Tundra Grey is a limestone mainly used for interior applications as it has a low resistance to frost and abrasion and its high porosity.
