MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Silver Portoro, also known as Porto Venere marble, is a precious and decorative stone with fine grain, black background and silvery veins extracted from the La Spezia area. The beauty and originality make Silver Portoro marble ideal for making decorative items such as vases, columns, sculptures, precious finishes, decorative elements and newspapers such as furniture floors and elegant bathrooms tops, luxurious fireplaces and floors.

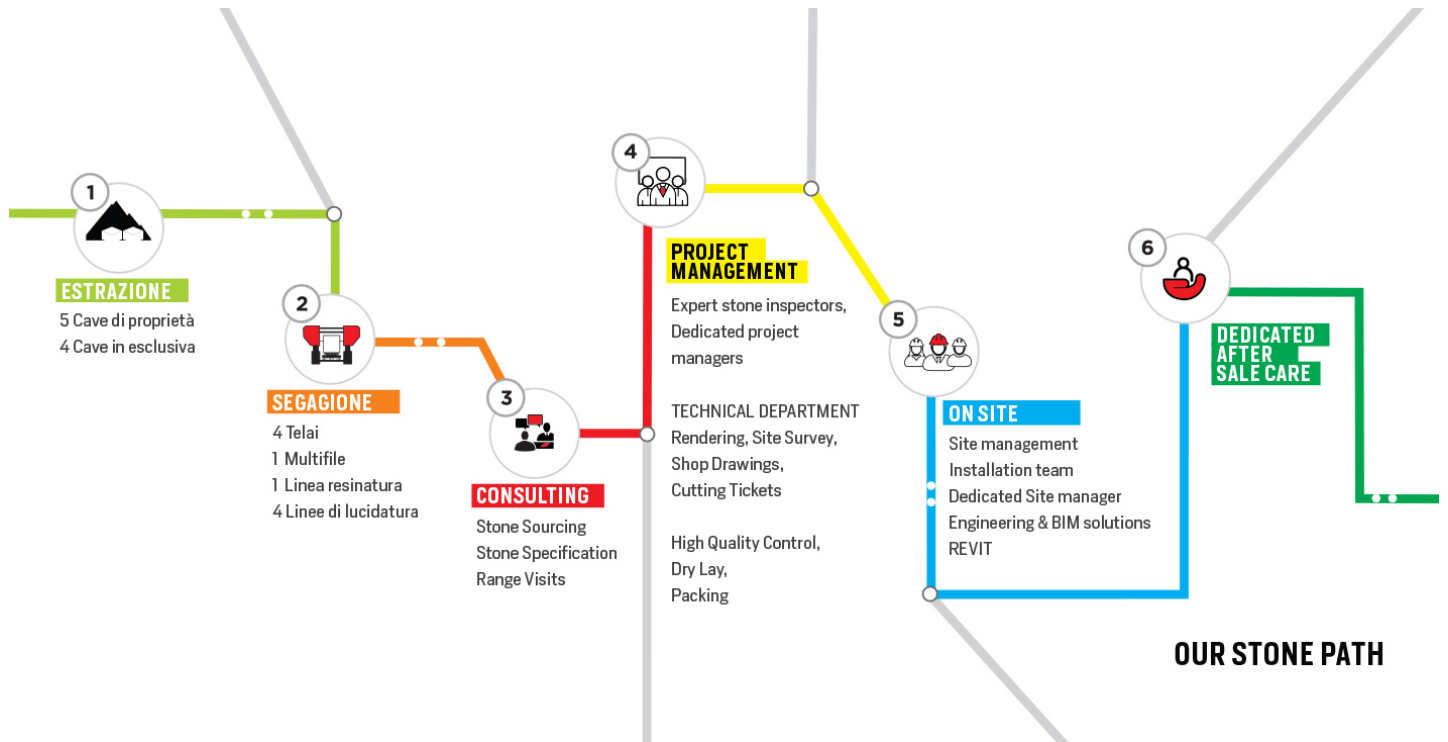

Stone of great character, especially suited to traditional applications of traditional and traditional flavors, the finishing touch that enhances its beauty is certainly the polishing process that makes it possible to make its beautiful silvery veins visible. Blocks are medium to small size and limited availability increases their value and refinement.
