

GRIGIO OROBICO

COLOUR

Grey

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Grey Orobico marble is a beautiful Italian marble grey in color with poliformic and veining shade of light pink and light brown. Grigio Orobico belongs to the arabescato family, very recognizable capable of giving personality to applications, it's treated with cation so that it removes any cracking on slabs and to improve resistance.

For its sheen, Grigio Orobico marble is used for interior flooring, for implementation of luxury half baths, everyday objects and countertops, but thanks to its resistance it can be used for outdoor flooring. It expresses its beauty in the best way in a lucid finish. Grey color is suitable to accompany modern and minimal furnishings.
