

MONACO BROWN

COLOUR

Brown

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Monaco Brown marble, also known as Cedarstone, is a natural stone extracted from Lebanon characterized by a splendid light brown background, with darker and lighter shadings, detail that gives personality to different projects and applications.

Possible realizations with Monaco Brown marble are: floorings, staircases, decorative elements for interiors and exteriors, pools and fountains, shower plates and countertops, fireplaces and different types of facings, especially the ones with a classical and traditional style. The finishings that best express this marble's beauty are polished, brushing, sanded and bush-hammered.
