

WHITE CARRARA

Colour: White

Macroscopic description: The Bianco Carrara marble is a precious natural stone, extracted since Roman times in the Carrara basin, from which it also takes its name. Thanks to its characteristics of resistance and its color, Bianco Carrara marble is widely used in a wide range of applications: flooring, cladding, interior furniture, and decorative objects.

is also extensively used in architecture for the construction of columns, statues, fountains, and other architectural elements, both for interiors and exteriors. Bianco Carrara marble is a renowned natural stone for its ability to reflect light, giving environments a bright and sophisticated atmosphere, as well as timeless beauty.