

TRAVERTINO GIALLO

COLOUR

Yellow

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Yellow Travertine is a travertine variety characterized by a yellow color, slightly lighter veining and little holes on the surface, particularity that distinguishes the different varieties of travertine marbles. The color of yellow Travertine may vary, based on the block and area of provenience, from deep yellow to orange, and may be cut transversally also.

Yellow Travertine is suitable for applications for interiors with a classic design style like floorings, different interior facings as the ones for fireplaces, kitchen tops, bathrooms elements, decorative elements like vases and trays, decorations for interiors and Mediterranean style gardens.
