ECLIPSIA WHITE

COLOUR

White

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Eclipsia White marble is a splendid limestone with a light grey background and more or less marked veinings, detail mainly based on the quarry and block of provenience. The veins of White Eclipsia marble are darker than the background and based on the quality of the material, the veinings may appear organized in clouds or brushstrokes.

Eclipsia White is a marble preferred by architects in the last few years for the fulfillment of interior design projects with a modern feel, thanks to its natural elegance and its modernity.

Eclipsia White is a marble that is mainly used in interior design projects as luxurious flooring and finishes, furnishings, decorative objects and elements, coverings and claddings, as well as kitchen and bathroom modern countertops.
