

MOKA CREME

COLOUR

Beige

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

Moka Creme marble is a beige, beautiful natural stone, very appreciated for its aesthetic characteristics and technical ones, as well as for its versatility. In fact, Moka Creme marble can be used for a large variety of projects like staircases, floorings, tops for bathrooms and modern kitchens, facings and fireplaces, columns and decorative objects.

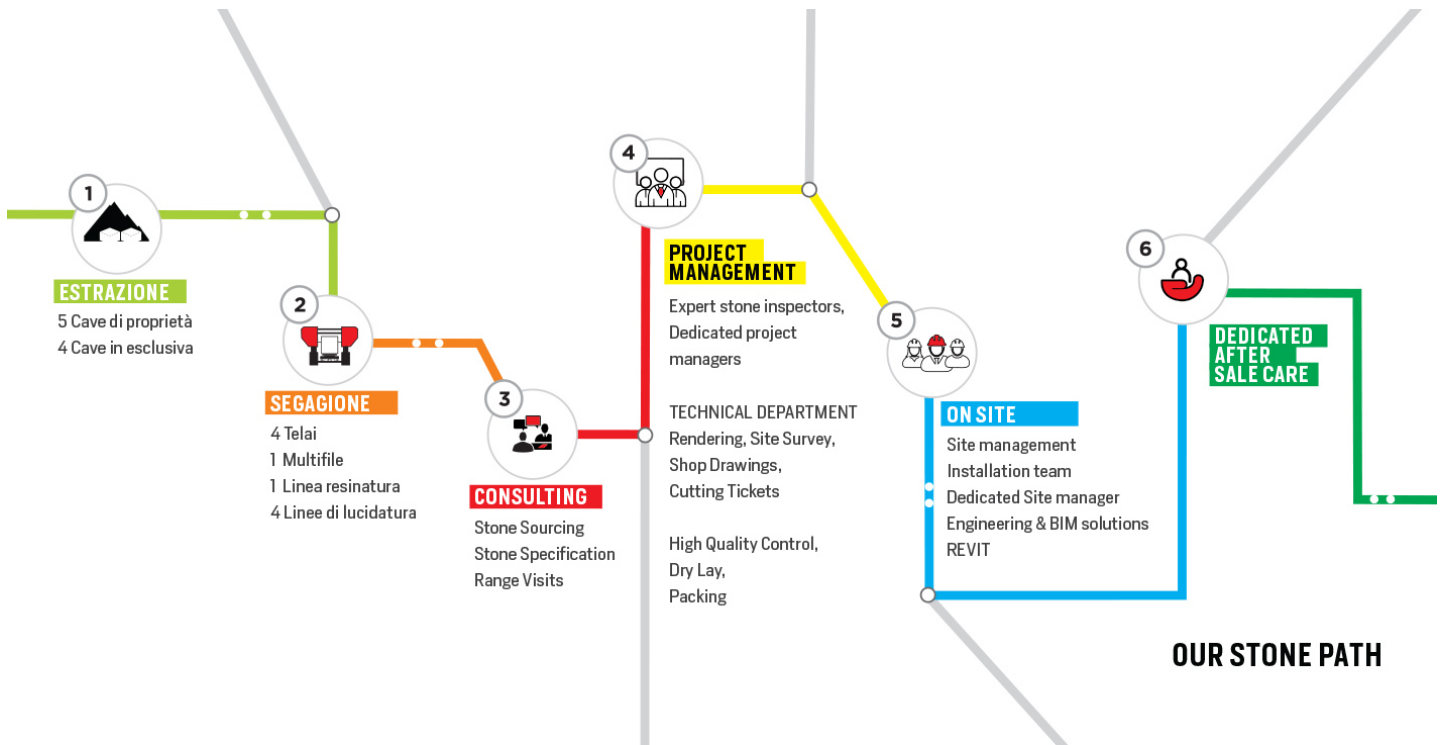

Thanks to its neutral color, Moka Creme marble is a porous natural stone with medium fine grain, due to this more suitable for interior design projects. Its color may vary from cream to beige and, based to the block of provenience, with beautiful and modern pink accents.
